“Secretary” means the Secretary of the Board appointed pursuant to section 6(6);

“vesting date” means the date on which property, rights and liabilities specified by the Minister in the order under section 4(1) to which the Government of Sarawak was entitled or subject to, are transferred to and vested in the Corporation.

PART II

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SARAWAK FORESTRY CORPORATION

Establishment of the Sarawak Forestry Corporation

3.—(1) There is established a body corporate by the name “Sarawak Forestry Corporation” with perpetual succession and a common seal, and which may sue and be sued in its name and, subject to and for the purposes of this Ordinance, may enter into contracts and may acquire, purchase, take, hold and enjoy movable and immovable property of every description and may convey, assign, surrender, yield up, charge, mortgage, demise, reassign, transfer or otherwise dispose of, or deal with, any movable or immovable property or any interest therein vested in the Corporation upon such terms as it deems fit.

(2) The Corporation shall for the purpose of the Land Code [Cap. 81 (1958 Ed.)] be deemed a native.

Vesting provisions

4.—(1) Subject to this Ordinance, the Minister may, from time to time, by order published in the Gazette, appoint a vesting date and on such date all property, rights or liabilities of the Government specified by the Minister in such order shall, by virtue of this Ordinance, be transferred to and vested in the Corporation without any conveyance, assignment or transfer whatever.

(2) Every property vested by virtue of subsection (1) in the Corporation shall be so vested in the Corporation for the like title, estate or interest and on the like tenure as the same was vested or held immediately before the vesting date.

(3) Every chose-in-action vested by virtue of subsection (1) in the Corporation may, after the vesting date, be sued on, recovered or enforced by the Corporation in its own name and it shall not be necessary for the Corporation or the Government to give notice to the person bound by the chose-in-action of the vesting effected by subsection (1).

(4) Every right and liability vested by virtue of subsection (1) in the Corporation may, on and after the vesting date, be sued on, recovered or enforced by or against the Corporation in its own name and it shall not be necessary for the Corporation or the Government to give notice to the person whose right or liability is affected by the vesting under subsection (1).

(5) Any pending legal proceedings by or against the Government which relate to any property, right or liability transferred to and vested in the Corporation by virtue of subsection (1) may, on and after the vesting date, be continued by or against the Corporation.

(6) In the case of rights and liabilities arising under any loans which is vested in the Corporation on the vesting date, the Corporation may enter into such arrangements or agreements over such rights and liabilities with the Government or any third party.

(7) On and after the vesting date, any agreement relating to any property, rights and liabilities transferred to and vested in the Corporation under subsection (1) to which the Government was a party immediately before the vesting date, whether in writing or not, and whether or not of such a nature that rights and liabilities thereunder could be assigned by the Government, shall have effect as if the Corporation has been a party to the agreement.

Common seal

5.—(1) The common seal of the Corporation shall bear such device as the Corporation may approve and such seal may from time to time be broken, changed, altered and made anew by the Corporation as it may think fit.

(2) The common seal shall be kept in the custody of the Secretary and shall be authenticated by the Chairman or one member generally or specially authorized by the Board for the purpose and the Secretary.

(3) All deeds, documents and other instruments purporting to be sealed with the common seal and authenticated in accordance with subsection (2) shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been validly executed.

(4) The common seal of the Corporation shall be officially and judicially noticed.

Membership of the Board

6.—(1) There shall be a Board of Directors constituted under this section which shall be responsible for the general management and administration of the affairs and business of the Corporation and to exercise all the powers and perform the functions vested by this Ordinance on the Corporation.

(2) The Board shall consist of the following members:

(a) the Chairman, who shall be appointed by the Yang di-Pertua Negeri;

(b) the Deputy Chairman, who shall be the Permanent Secretary to the Ministry having responsibility over forestry; and

(c) not more than eight and not less than five other members to be appointed by the Minister, of whom at least three must be officers in the State Public Service.

(3) The members appointed under subsection (2)(c) who are not public officers, shall be from among persons with experience or knowledge in forestry, financial, commercial or legal matters.

(4) The Deputy Chairman shall discharge and perform all duties and functions of the Chairman if the Chairman is unable for reason of illness or incapacity to act.

(5) In the event of both the Chairman and Deputy Chairman being absent or unable to act due to illness or any other cause, the Minister shall appoint any member of the Board to be the temporary Chairman.

(6) The Secretary of the Board shall be appointed by the Chairman after consultation with the Minister. The Secretary shall hold office for such term as the Chairman shall determine and may be paid such salaries and remuneration as the Board shall decide.

(7) The provisions of the Schedule shall apply to the Board.

Terms of office

7. Subject to such terms as the Minister may determine, a member, other than the Deputy Chairman, shall hold office for a term not exceeding three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

Disqualification of member

8. No person shall continue to hold office as a member if he

(a) is convicted of an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude;

(b) is of unsound mind or is otherwise incapable of discharging his duties;

(c) is adjudicated a bankrupt; or

(d) absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the Board without leave of the Chairman.

Revocation and resignation of member

9.—(1) The Minister may, at any time, revoke the appointment of any member, other than the Chairman and Deputy Chairman, without giving any reason therefor.

(2) Any member or the Secretary may, at any time, resign from his office by giving notice in writing to the Chairman.

PART III

FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF THE CORPORATION

Functions of the Corporation

10. The functions of the Corporation shall be—

(a) to act as agent of the Government and to provide services in administering, assessing, collecting and enforcing payment of royalty, premia, fees and other dues or levies chargeable under, and to perform other functions conferred by, the Forests Ordinance [Cap. 126 (1958 Ed.)], the National Parks and Nature Reserves Ordinance, 1998 [Cap. 27] and the Wild Life Protection Ordinance, 1998 [Cap. 26];

(b) to act as agent of the Government to enforce compliance by all licensees, contractors, subcontractors, operators and those involved in the logging and timber processing industry of all laws and regulations governing their operations, and the conditions, directives, plans and schemes contained or imposed on any permit or licence issued to them under the Forests Ordinance [Cap. 126 (1958 Ed.)];

(c) to act as agent of the Government to enforce provisions under the Forests Ordinance [Cap. 126 (1958 Ed.)], the National Parks and Nature Reserves Ordinance, 1998 [Cap. 27] and the Wild Life Protection Ordinance, 1998 [Cap. 26];

(d) to carry out and implement plans and policies of the Government for the sustainable forest management, forestry development, reforestation, and rehabilitation and research of any nature into forest produce and resources;

(e) to undertake research on all aspects of forestry including the management of wild life and other non-timber resources in the forests;

(f) to advise the Government on all matters relating to forestry, management of forests, forestry research and development and enhancement of the utilization of forest produce;

(g) to manage and administer, on behalf of the Government, all forest reserves, protected forests, communal forests, national parks, nature reserves, wild life sanctuaries, and areas reserved for forestry research, recreation and conservation;

(h) to provide consultancy services;

(i) to plan for and undertake human resource development in forestry and timber processing industries; and

(j) to perform such other functions as are conferred on the Corporation by any other written law.

Powers of the Corporation

11.—(1) The Corporation shall have power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the powers of the Corporation shall include power—

(a) to utilize all property of the Corporation, movable and immovable, in such manner as the Corporation may think expedient including the raising of loans by mortgaging such property;

(b) to engage in any activity, either alone or in conjunction with other organizations or international agencies, to promote better understanding of forestry;

(c) to provide technical advice or assistance, including training and training facilities, to the forest and timber industry sector;

(d) to impose fees or charges for services rendered by the Corporation;

(e) to grant loans to employees of the Corporation for any purpose specifically approved by the Board;

(f) to provide recreational facilities and promote recreational activities for, and activities conducive to, the welfare of employees of the Corporation;

(g) to provide training for employees of the Corporation and to award scholarships or otherwise pay for such training;

(h) to pay such fees and allowances to members as the Board may determine; and

(i) to do anything incidental to any of its powers.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, the powers of the Corporation shall not include the powers vested in the Director under the Forests Ordinance [Cap. 126 (1958 Ed.)] or the National Parks and Nature Reserves Ordinance, 1998 [Cap. 27] or the Wild Life Protection Ordinance, 1998 [Cap. 26].

Appointment of committees

12.—(1) For the purposes of performing its functions, the Board may establish such committees as it considers necessary, and with such terms of reference as it may specify.

(2) Members of a committee established under subsection (1) may be appointed from amongst members of the Board or such other persons as the Board thinks fit.

(3) Persons who are disqualified from being members of the Board under section 8 shall also be disqualified from being members of a committee.

(4) A member of the committee shall hold office for such term as may be specified in his letter of appointment and is eligible for re-appointment.

(5) The Board may revoke the appointment of any member of a committee without assigning any reason therefor.

(6) A member of a committee may at any time resign by giving notice in writing to the Chairman of the Board.

Delegation of functions

13.—(1) The Board may by direction in writing delegate to any committee established under section 12 such of its functions as it may deem necessary or expedient.

(2) Any functions delegated under this section—

(a) may be so delegated subject to such conditions or restrictions as the Board may either generally or specifically impose; and

(b) shall be performed by the committee in the name and on behalf of the Board.

(3) No delegation made under this section shall preclude the Board itself from performing at any time any of the functions so delegated.

Formation of companies, etc.

14.—(1) The Corporation may, from time to time, with the written approval of the Minister, incorporate or establish companies by such name as the Corporation may determine to carry out and have the charge, conduct and management on behalf of the Corporation of any project, scheme or enterprise as may be decided by the Corporation in the discharge of its functions and the exercise of its powers.

(2) Any company incorporated or established by the Corporation may be wholly owned by the Corporation or may be a subsidiary or related or associated company of the Corporation.

Power of Minister to give directions and require information

15.—(1) The Minister may give to the Corporation such directions of a general character not inconsistent with this Ordinance relating to the performance of the Corporation's functions and the Corporation shall give effect to all such directions.

(2) The Corporation shall furnish the Minister with such returns, accounts and other information as he may, from time to time, require.

PART IV

PROVISIONS RELATING TO EMPLOYEES

Employment

16.—(1) The Corporation shall on the appointed day accept into its employment every person who immediately before that date is in the employment or service of the Forests Department, Sarawak and who was given an option by the Government and has opted to serve as an employee of the Corporation.

(2) Every such person who opts under subsection (1) to serve as an employee of the Corporation shall be employed by the Corporation on terms and conditions of service not less favourable than the terms and conditions of service to which he is entitled to immediately before the date mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) Until such time as the terms and conditions of service including the conduct and discipline of its employees are drawn up for and by the Corporation, the scheme and terms and conditions of service including the conduct and discipline of officers in the State Public Service shall mutatis mutandis continue to apply to every person employed by the Corporation under subsection (1).

Salaries, terms and conditions of service of Government employees to be taken into account

17.—(1) The terms and conditions to be drawn up by the Corporation shall take into account the salaries and terms and conditions of service, including any accrued rights and entitlements, enjoyed by the persons while in the employment of the Government before opting into the service of the Corporation; and any such term or condition relating to the length of service with the Corporation shall provide for the recognition of service with the Government by the persons making the option as service with the Corporation.

(2) Where any person in the service of the Corporation whose case does not fall within the scope of any pension or other schemes established under this section retires or dies while in the service of the Corporation or is discharged from such service, the Corporation may grant to him or to such other person or persons wholly or partly dependent on him, as the Corporation thinks fit, such allowance or gratuity as the Corporation may determine.

Appointment of other employees, agents and consultants

18.—(1) Subject to such regulations as may be made under sections 20 and 35, the Corporation may, from time to time, appoint and employ on such terms and conditions as the Corporation may think fit such other employees as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) The Board may appoint and employ such consultants and agents to transact any business or to do any act required to be transacted or done in the execution of its functions or for the better carrying into effect the purposes of this Ordinance.

Appointment of Chief Executive Officer

19.—(1) The Corporation shall, with the approval of the Minister, appoint a Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and such appointment shall be on such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Minister.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall be responsible for—

(a) the proper administration and management of the Corporation in accordance with the policies laid down by the Corporation;

(b) the supervision and control over the implementation of all decisions and policies of the Corporation;

(c) the general control of all officers and servants of the Corporation;

(d) the issue of policy guideline or elucidation of decisions of the Corporation to officers and servants of the Corporation; and

(e) the execution of all programmes, plans, schemes and projects of the Corporation.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer shall perform such further duties as the Board may from time to time direct.

[Am. Cap. A104.]

(4) If the Chief Executive Officer is temporarily absent from Malaysia or is temporarily incapacitated through illness or for any other sufficient cause, from the performance of his duties, the Board, with the approval of the Minister, may direct another officer to perform his duties during such temporary absence or incapacity of the Chief Executive Officer.

[Am. Cap. A104.]

Regulations with respect to discipline

20.—(1) The Board may, from time to time, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations with respect to the discipline of employees of the Corporation.

(2) The regulations made under this section may include provisions of—

(a) the interdiction with reduction in salary or in other remuneration; or

(b) the suspension without salary or other remuneration, of an employee of the Corporation during the pendency of disciplinary proceedings against him.

(3) The regulations made under this section shall create and classify the disciplinary offences and provide for such disciplinary punishments as the Board may deem appropriate, and the punishment so provided may extend to dismissal or reduction in rank.

(4) The regulations made under this section may, in prescribing the procedure for disciplinary proceedings, provide for an opportunity for representations to be made by the person against whom the disciplinary proceedings are taken before a decision is arrived at by the Board on the disciplinary charge laid against such person.

Continuation and completion of disciplinary proceedings

21.—(1) Where on the appointed day any disciplinary proceedings is pending or existing against any employee of the Government who has opted into the service of the Corporation, such proceedings shall be continued and completed by the Board.

(2) An order, ruling or direction made or given by any committee established by the Board to conduct disciplinary proceedings shall be treated as an order, ruling or direction of the Board and have the same force or effect as if it had been made or given by the Board pursuant to the authority vested in the Board under this Ordinance.

Imposition of surcharge

22.—(1) If the Board is satisfied that any person who is or was in the employment of the Corporation—

(a) is or was responsible for any improper payment of moneys from the Fund or for any payment of such moneys which is not duly vouched;

(b) is or was responsible for any deficiency in, or for the destruction of, any moneys, securities, stores or other property of the Corporation;

(c) being or having been an accounting officer, fails or has failed to keep proper accounts or records; or

(d) has failed to make any payment, or is or was responsible for any delay in the payment, of moneys from the Corporation to any person to whom such payment is due under any contract, agreement or arrangement entered into between that person and the Corporation, and if a satisfactory explanation is not furnished to the Board within a period specified by the Board, with regard to the failure to collect, improper payment, payment not duly vouched, deficiency or destruction, or failure to keep proper accounts or records, or failure to make payment, or delay in making payment, the Board may surcharge against the said person a sum not exceeding the amount of any such amount not collected, such payment, deficiency, or loss or the value of the property destroyed, as the case may be; and with regard to the failure to keep proper accounts or records, or the failure to make payment, or the delay in making payment, the Board may surcharge against the said person such sum as the Board may think fit.

(2) The Board shall notify the person surcharged of its decision made under subsection (1).

(3) The Board may at any time withdraw any surcharge in respect of which a satisfactory explanation has been received or if otherwise appears that no surcharge should have been made, and notify the person concerned accordingly.

(4) The amount of any surcharge imposed under subsection (1) and not withdrawn under subsection (3) shall be a debt due to the Corporation from the person against whom the surcharge is imposed and may be sued for and recovered in any court at the suit of the Corporation and may also be recovered by deduction—

(a) from the salary of the person surcharged if the Board so directs; or

(b) from the pension or any retirement benefits of the person surcharged if the Board so directs, by equal monthly instalments not exceeding one-fourth of the total monthly salary or pension, as the case may be, of the person.

Protection from personal liability

23. No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie personally against any member of the Board or any officer or employee of the Corporation or any other person under the direction of the Corporation for anything which is done in good faith or intended to be done in the execution or purported execution of this Ordinance.

Public servants

24. All members of the Board and its committees and all officers, employees or agents of the Corporation shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code [Act 574].

PART V

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Fund of the Corporation

25.—(1) There shall be established, for the purposes of this Ordinance, a Fund to be administered and controlled by the Corporation.

(2) The Fund of the Corporation shall consist of—

(a) all moneys received by the Corporation for services rendered by the Corporation to the Government as its agent or for services rendered by the Corporation to any person;

(b) all moneys received by the Corporation by way of grants from the Government;

(c) all moneys derived from the disposal, lease or hire of, or any other dealing with, any property vested in or acquired by the Corporation;

(d) all moneys derived as income from investment by the Corporation;

(e) all moneys borrowed by the Corporation under this Ordinance; and

(f) all other moneys lawfully received by the Corporation.

Expenditure and preparation of estimates

26.—(1) The expenditure of the Corporation up to such amount as may be authorized by the Majlis Mesyuarat Kerajaan Negeri for any year shall be defrayed out of the Fund.

(2) Before the beginning of each year, the Corporation shall submit to the Majlis Mesyuarat Kerajaan Negeri an estimate of the expenditure for the following year in such form and containing such particulars as the Majlis may direct, and the Majlis shall, before the beginning of that following year, notify the Corporation through the Minister of the amount authorized for expenditure generally or of the amounts authorized for each description of expenditure.

(3) The Corporation may at any time submit to the Majlis Mesyuarat Kerajaan Negeri a supplementary estimate for any one year and the Majlis may allow the whole or any part of the additional expenditure included therein.

Power to borrow

27.—(1) The Corporation may, from time to time for the purposes of this Ordinance, raise loans from the Government or with the consent of the Majlis Mesyuarat Kerajaan Negeri, from any other source.

(2) The Corporation shall not provide guarantee or security to secure the debt or liabilities of any person or party without the prior approval of the Majlis Mesyuarat Kerajaan Negeri.

Grants

28. For the purposes of enabling the Corporation to carry out its functions under this Ordinance, the Majlis Mesyuarat Kerajaan Negeri may, from time to time, make grants-in-aid to the Corporation of such sums of money as the Majlis may determine out of moneys to be provided by the Dewan Undangan Negeri.

Bank accounts and application of revenue

29.—(1) The Corporation shall open and maintain an account or accounts with such bank or banks as the Corporation thinks fit; and every such account shall be operated upon as far as practicable by cheque signed by such person or persons as may, from time to time, be authorized by the Corporation.

(2) The moneys of the Corporation shall be applied only in payment of discharge of the expenses, obligations and liabilities of the Corporation and in making any payment that the Corporation is authorized or required to make.

Investment

30. The Corporation may, with the approval of the Minister, invest any of its funds available for investment in the following manner:

(a) by depositing in—

(i) Bank Negara Malaysia;

(ii) banks duly licensed under the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 [Act 372]; or

(iii) any other financial institution duly licensed under the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 [Act 372];

(b) by investing in bonds, debentures, commercial notes, banker's acceptances, money market instruments, certificates of deposits and promissory notes and bills of exchange within the meaning of the Bills of Exchange Act 1949 [Act 204]; or

(c) by investing in accordance with the provisions of the Trustee Act 1949 [Act 208]:

Provided however, where the Corporation invests in or upon titles to immovable property in Malaysia in accordance with section 4(1)(c) of the Trustee Act 1949 [Act 208], such immovable property may or may not yield any income at the time of such investment.

PART VI

GENERAL

Immunity from legal action or proceedings

31.—(1) No action or legal proceedings shall be brought against the Corporation in respect of any act or deed carried out by the Corporation, as agent of the Government under the Forests Ordinance [Cap. 126 (1958 Ed.)], the National Parks and Nature Reserves Ordinance, 1998 [Cap. 27], the Wild Life Protection Ordinance, 1998 [Cap. 26], and in respect of all other duties carried out by the Corporation under the said Ordinances.

(2) Any action or legal proceedings in respect of the collection or recovery of royalty, premia, fees and other dues or levies on forest produce shall be instituted or taken by or in the name of or against the Government.

Obligation of secrecy

32.—(1) Except as provided in this Ordinance or for the purpose of any civil or criminal proceedings under any written law, no member of the Board and no officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, whether during his tenure of office, or during his employment or thereafter, and no other person who has by any means access to any confidential information or document whatsoever relating to the affairs of the Corporation shall give, divulge, reveal or otherwise disclose such information or document to any person.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

Statutory Bodies (Financial and Accounting Procedure) Ordinance, 1995 to apply

33. The provisions of the Statutory Bodies (Financial and Accounting Procedure) Ordinance, 1995 [Cap. 15], shall apply to the Corporation.

Power of Minister to amend the Schedule

34. The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, amend the Schedule to this Ordinance.

Regulations

35.—(1) The Corporation may, with the approval of the Yang di-Pertua Negeri, make such regulations as may be expedient or necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Corporation may make regulations for or with respect to all or any of the following matters:

(a) the manner of appointment, and the terms and conditions of service of the officers and employees of the Corporation;

(b) the payment of gratuities and other benefits to officers and employees of the Corporation; and

(c) the fees or charges to be imposed in respect of anything done under or by virtue of this Ordinance.

SCHEDULE

(Section 6(7))

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

Meetings of the Board

1.—(1) The Board shall meet for the despatch of its business at least once in three months at such time and place as the Chairman may, from time to time, determine.

(2) At every meeting of the Board, three members shall form a quorum.

(3) A decision at a meeting of the Board shall be adopted by a simple majority of the members present and voting except that, in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his original vote.

Disclosure of interest by members

2.—(1) A member of the Board who is in any way, directly or indirectly, having any interest in any transaction or project of the Corporation shall disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Board; and such disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting and the member shall take no part in any deliberation or decision of the Board with respect to that transaction or project.

(2) For the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum, a member shall be treated as being present at a meeting notwithstanding that under subparagraph (1) he cannot vote or has withdrawn from the meeting.

Vacancies

3. The Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership.

Procedure at meetings

4.—(1) Subject to this Ordinance, the Board may, with the approval of the Minister, make rules to regulate its own procedure generally and, in particular, regarding the holding and proceedings of meetings, the notice to be given of such meetings, the keeping of minutes and the custody, production and inspection of such minutes.

(2) Any minutes made of meetings of the Board or any committee, if duly signed by the Chairman, shall, in any legal proceedings, be admissible as evidence of the facts stated therein and every meeting of the Board or any committee in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been so made shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held and all members thereat to have been duly qualified to act.

Validity of proceedings

5. The validity of any proceeding of the Board shall not be affected by any contravention of paragraph 2 by any member.

The Board may invite others to meetings

6. The Board may invite any person to attend any meeting or deliberation of the Board for the purpose of advising it on any matter under discussion, but any person so attending shall have no right to vote at the said meeting or deliberation.

Allowances payable to members of the Board

7. There may be paid to the members of the Board or any other person invited to attend any meeting of the Board such remuneration or allowances out of the funds of the Corporation as the Minister may determine.
